WORKSHOP RULES

These are mandatory rules for all members, visitors, users and guests.

GENERAL

Violation of any rule will solicit a response from a kindly written email reminder to immediate revocation of your membership (if applicable) or immediate banishment from the site as decided by directors based on the severity.

You are liable for anything you break; you must repair, have repaired, or replace anything damaged or broken.

You may not remove anything you do not own from the workshop without permission from a director; this includes but is not limited to books, tools, equipment, parts and other members items.

Before leaving anything in the workshop for use by others you must coordinate with the space coordinator who will approve, receive, and document if the item is donated or lent to the club, remaining your property.

VISITING/VISITORS

You must sign in.

You must note if someone did not sign in.

Only one visitor per member unless it is an open workshop event.

You are liable for any damage your visitor creates.

SAFETY

You are responsible for bringing and inspecting your own safety equipment.

You are responsible for your own safety. SnoCo Makers is not responsible for your safety as we can not monitor your every move. If you are not completely comfortable using something, do not use it.

You must use safety equipment when using any tool.

You must not use any power tool around others without warning them.

Visitors may not use equipment without being certified as trained.

You need to be trained and certified by a trainer before using any equipment including hand tools.

No minors may use power tools.

Inspect every tool you use before use; mark and do not use if the tool is not serviceable.

COMMON COURTESY

You must take turns if someone(s) is waiting to use a piece of equipment.

If you are not a key holding member and the key holding member has noted they are leaving at a specific time you must be ready to walk out the door at that time.

You and your visitor may only use one bench at a time.

During announced meetings you should not be working with any tools or equipment that make noise, create fumes, or are otherwise distracting.

REFUSE

Remove your trash and debris at the end of every visit; No garbage should be left in the building.
Clean equipment and tools after every use.
